

ONLINE SURVEYS

An increasingly popular way for students to make money is to fill out online surveys in their spare time. Research companies are always recruiting new members worldwide to answer surveys and test new products.

For a few minutes of form filling, you can make a couple of quid which is paid as cash or rewards. You can bag up to 30 Ron for some surveys!

Became a deliverer driver

Got a bicycle, motorbike or car? What about a Smartphone? That's all you need to make some extra money by delivering food or people whenever you've got some spare time.

Sign up to delivery specialist companies like Deliveroo who are always on the hunt for new riders. They allow you total flexibility to work when you want, delivering food from restaurants to the customers' door. You can make up to £16 an hour. Double-up your opportunities by directly contacting local takeaways and bigger chains like Glovo to see if they have any delivery jobs going.

PART- TIME JOBS

Part-time job is the obvious first choice, opted for by most students looking to supplement their student loan. It provides a pretty steady flow of income and can enable you to gain valuable work experience.

But good jobs are not always easy to find! Start with our student job search, then check local classifieds and your university careers service for vacancies. It's also worth signing up with CV Library, a free service which will match your CV with suitable part-time jobs and career opportunities. Read our guide to finding a part-time job whilst studying for more tips.
